- Notable Coursework: Contracts , Ethics) Criminal Law

New Mexico High School

- High school Diploma, Class of 94

Legal Experience:

Solo Practitioner | "McGill & Associates"| Albuquerque, NM

2012 – Present

- Successfully represented a variety of clients, often in cases where other lawyers wouldn't even bother showing up.
- Developed creative, unconventional legal strategies to maximize results (some might call them loopholes).
- Specialized in personal injury, elder law, and contract disputes (mostly involving handshake deals gone wrong).
- Extensive experience with plea bargains, small-time criminals, and questionable ethics.
- Represented clients in cases against large corporations, law enforcement, and anyone who stood in the way of justice (or a solid payday).

Public Defender | Albuquerque Public Defender's Office

2009 – 2012

- Defended clients in a wide range of cases, often under challenging conditions (e.g., clients guilty beyond a reasonable doubt).
- Negotiated deals and settlements that ranged from "acceptable" to "barely legal."

- Earned a reputation for being persistent, resourceful, and sometimes irritating in the courtroom.
 - Developed valuable experience in courtroom theatrics and dramatic monologues.

Skills:

- Skilled in legal improvisation and thinking on my feet.
 - Highly persuasive, especially when backed into a corner.
 - Deep understanding of street law and back-alley negotiations.
 - Fluent in both legal jargon and everyday scams—I mean, strategies.
 - Proficient in document drafting (when necessary).
 - Can turn almost anything into a legitimate legal argument with enough time and effort.

Certifications & Licenses:

- Licensed Attorney
 - Member of the New Mexico Bar Association

Achievements

- Lawyer of the year award (2004)
